We're a supportive and engaged team, no one gets left on their own. Everyone has a say in what we do and how we do it. Here's what the team said they like about working at Magenta.

Wide range of projects, clients and responsibilities means a varied work life.

The exposure you get to all aspects of the business not seen in larger agencies.

If you're passionate about something, you're encouraged to develop it. All interests are considered.

A nice mix of commercial and charity work. Remote, flexible working with a supportive team.
